Terms and conditions

- You are allowed to perform street entertainment or busk, but only in the areas and during the times approved by the Street Entertainment Coordinator.
- The road will be closed from 7:00am, so please make sure you have unloaded your gear before then.
- Your performance must not include any racist, sexist or offensive material. If you want to use fire, fireworks or dangerous objects like knives and chainsaws, you will need written permission from the event organisers.
- Please make sure to clean up any rubbish created during your performance and be mindful not to block doorways, windows or the flow of pedestrians.
- It is important that your performance does not disturb others comfort or safety so please respect nearby residents or businesses.
- All electrical equipment must have tested and tagged power leads.
- The Country Music Club of Boyup Brook WA Inc. accept no responsibility for damage or loss, and as such, you are responsible for all of your equipment and belongings.
- The applicant holder must be present during the performance.
- Please keep your sound levels in check and avoid turning them up to a point where they might disturb nearby performers or spectators.

Please send completed and signed application and promotional materials, if any, to hello@wacountrymusic.com.au
Attn: Street Entertainment Coordinator.

☐ I have read and agree to the terms and conditions.
