Terms and Conditions

- You're allowed to perform street entertainment, but only in the areas approved by the Street Entertainment Coordinator.
- The road will be closed from 7:00 am, so please make sure you've unloaded your gear before then.
- Your performance must not include any racist, sexist, or offensive material. You're only allowed to perform during the set times, and if you want to use fire, fireworks, or dangerous objects like knives or chainsaws, you'll need written permission first.
- Please make sure you clean up any rubbish created during your performance, and be mindful not to block doorways, windows, or the flow of pedestrians.
- It's important that your performance doesn't disturb others' comfort or safety, so please respect nearby residents and businesses.
- Also, the permit holder must be present during the performance. You can refer to the attached street map for more details.
- Please keep your sound levels in check and avoid turning them up to a point where they might disturb nearby performers or spectators.

Please send completed application and promotional materials, if any, to hello@wacountrymusic.com.au
Attn: Street Entertainment Coordinator.

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions.
